

Lorrin Johnson

- Welcome and Happy New Year
- A special welcome to our visitors It is a pleasure to have you join our branch meeting.
- AAUW Westchester is proud to be successfully having monthly branch meetings on ZOOM. We have had some outstanding speakers and if you missed any of the speakers you can go to our website and see the recordings.
- We continue our regular programming virtually in our ACTION GROUPS, BRANCH PROJECTS, AND ENJOYING OUR INTEREST GROUPS.
- Our CHIPS, monthly newsletter keeps us up-to-date on our activities thanks to Sue Lambert.

Membership report: Judy Walsh reported we have 155 members

Treasurers Report: Susan Gardner reported that they have almost completed the account changes from Bank of America to Chase Bank

Lorrin reported that one of our most recent accomplishments was our member's holiday contributions to children of the women of the Bedford Hills and Taconic Correctional Facilities.

15 members participated donating over a thousand dollars to the Hour Children's Holiday Gift Drive.

Our thanks to our member Raven Waterman who organized it.

Speaker: Today our Speaker, Stephen Paul DeVillo will be introduced by Marie McKellar our program vice president. Please remember if you have question during the talk please write them in the chat box and after the talk Ellen will call on you to speak.

The next Monthly meeting will be on Saturday, February 6, 2021

The speaker will be William Greenawalt, JD

Bending the Arc of the Moral Universe Toward Justice

We look forward to seeing you. If you know others who would like to join us monthly please email us to get the zoom information.

Have a pleasant and safe month.

Respectfully submitted by Lorrin Johnson
Co-President AAUW Westchester